

After several pandemic-related delays, SYR is happy to announce the release of their much-anticipated third album. In keeping with the band's last release, The Winter King, this new composition builds on SYR's essential approach to their music:

“The idea is to write about Celtic history, legends, and stories finding themes that would resonate with a modern audience.”

Founder and front man, Kyle MacCallum, also incorporated his experience as a songwriter/performer facing the challenges of the last two years—canceled shows, live-streaming, the safety of the band, uncertainty about the future, and isolation. Sentinel brings together a collection of songs that blend the past and the present in a powerful and visceral experience.

About The Band

SYR is a unique Celtic Folk Rock band from Columbia, SC, taking inspiration from Celtic history, stories and myths, to create powerful songs with themes like battle, love, and victory. Front man Kyle MacCallum founded SYR on the belief that the rich heritage of the Celtic Nations and the Gaelic language could be brought to life in a contemporary musical style with broad audience appeal.

From humble beginnings at pubs and local venues, SYR's high-energy performance has become a welcome addition to Celtic festivals and events across the US: Celtic Classic (PA), Longs Peak Scottish-Irish Festival (CO), New Hampshire Highland Games, Niagara Celtic Fest, St. Augustine Celtic Fest, Savannah Irish Fest, Irish Fest Camden (SC), NE Florida Highland Games, Asheville Celtic Fest (NC), and many others.

SYR has performed alongside such established groups as Seven Nations, Enter the Haggis, Albannach, the Byrne Brothers, Glengarry Bhoys, Tannahill Weavers, Steel City Rovers, and more.

SYR consists of siblings Kyle (vocals, guitar) and Laurel MacCallum (vocals, percussion); Kelly Vance (bass), Greg Vance (drums), Ben Campbell (guitar) and Worth Lewallen (fiddle).

www.syrmusic.com

www.facebook.com/thebandsyr

Instagram: @syr_music

www.youtube.com/SyrMusic

Booking information: info@syrmusic.com